

DOCOMOMO 2020+1 Schedule UPDATE as of 30 JUNE, 2020.

Although COVID-19 pandemic is hardly contained in many parts of the world yet, DOCOMOMO 2020+1 conference secretariat and DOCOMOMO international has been watching carefully and closely discussing how we could proceed to determine the schedule. We believe there is a significance to get together physically especially at the time like this, if we can. Therefore, we do not shift the conference to online gathering, but to set the postponed dates to 29 August through 2 September, 2021.

Opening reception	29 August
Main international conference	30, 31 August and 1 September (3 days)
International symposium and closing ceremony	2 September

This schedule is still tentative, as you may understand, and we need to observe the condition caring the participant's health and safety first. There still is a chance to revise this current schedule.

We look forward to seeing everyone in person here in TOKYO in 2021. In the meantime, DOCOMOMO Japan is planning to host series of online accessible discussion forums/webinars on what COVID-19 brought and will bring about to us and to the modern movement.

Please keep in touch!
